HIS GREATNESS

by Daniel MacIvor.

Directed by Ché Walker. Designed by Jean Marc Puissant. Lighting by Arnim Friess.

"Look at who you are man, that's your name on that book. All those people up there on that stage last night, that's you. That's magic. You do magic."

An European premiere from one of Canada's pre-eminent playwrights, Daniel MacIvor, His Greatness opens at the Finborough Theatre on Tuesday, 24 April 2012 (Press Night: Friday, 27 April 2012 at 7.30pm) for a four week limited season.

Inspired by a 'potentially true story' during the declining days of Tennessee Williams, His Greatness is an intimate insight into the mind of a familiar public figure, grappling with the loss of former glory and desperate for a return to form and success.

Three men; a great American playwright, his trusted and loyal assistant, and a young Canadian street hustler find themselves together for two days in a hotel room in Vancouver. The ensuing battle for power, love and loyalty is frequently funny, engagingly dark and ultimately moving. This is the story of living with greatness and the pain of its inexorable decline.

Celebrated Canadian playwright Daniel MacIvor has written and directed numerous award-winning productions including See Bob Run, Wild Abandon, 2-2-Tango, This Is A Play, The Soldier Dreams, You Are Here, How It Works and A Beautiful View. With long time collaborator Daniel Brooks, he created the solo performances House, Here Lies Henry, Monster and Cul-de-sac. Daniel's play Never Swim Alone won the award for overall excellence at the New York Fringe in 1998 and, in 2002, he won a GLAAD Award and a Village Voice Obie Award for In On It, which was presented at PS122. His play Marion Bridge received its off-Broadway premiere in New York in 2005. From 1987-2007, with producing partner Sherrie Johnson, he ran Da Da Kamera, a respected international theatre touring company that has brought his work to Australia, Israel, Europe, the UK, and extensively throughout Canada and the US. In 2007, His Greatness was critically lauded in its premiere production at the Arts Club Theatre in Vancouver and has subsequently been seen in New York City in a sell-out production. Both House and See Bob Run have been produced at the Finborough Theatre, while His Greatness received a staged reading at the Finborough Theatre in April 2010 to complement its London premiere production of Tennessee Williams' The Notebook of Trigorin.

Director Ché Walker returns to the Finborough Theatre where he made his directorial debut with Achidi J's Final Hours in 2004, and where he has directed three other critically acclaimed sell-out productions – Etta Jenks, starring Daniela Nardini and Clarke Peters (2005), Blue Surge (2011) and Fog (2012). Other Theatre includes Been So Long (Young Vic and English Touring Theatre), Extended Family (Chichester Festival Theatre), The Glory of Living (BAC), Estate Walls, Little Baby Jesus (Oval House), Lovesong (English Touring Theatre and Edinburgh Fringe), Car Thieves (National Theatre Studio) and Dance for Me (Tricycle Theatre). Ché's writing includes Been So Long (The Young Vic and Royal Court Theatre), The Frontline (Shakespeare's Globe), Iphigenia (Southwark Playhouse), Flesh Wound (Royal Court Theatre), Crazy Love (Paines Plough), Car Thieves (National Theatre Studio), Carmen (Open Air Theatre), Dance For Me (Theatre Royal Stratford East) and Rootz Spectacular (Belgrade Theatre, Coventry). He is also writing the book for The Eighth, a new musical with music and lyrics by Paul Heaton of The Beautiful South for this year's Manchester International Festival as well as writing his own musical adaptation of The Bacchae with Arthur Darvill for English Touring Theatre. This year, Ché will direct the feature film adaptation of his original musical, Been So Long from his own screenplay for Greenacre Films/UKFC and is also developing an original television series with the BBC.

The Press on His Greatness

"His Greatness is a great piece of theatre. More than mere homage to Tennessee Williams, Daniel MacIvor's superb study of a fading Southern playwright is a finely detailed story with nuance to spare." Peter Bernie, Vancouver Sun.

"Daniel MacIvor's His Greatness is a beautiful play, made up of equal amounts of laughter and tears... MacIvor reveals layer upon layer of complexity and resentment, gradually letting us see how a great love can corrode into an even greater hate. ...Daniel MacIvor's play is the toast of New York City" Richard Ouzounian, Toronto Star

Four Stars in Time Out New York

"Stunning...like a well-crafted handmade watch....simply genius." Nytheatre.com

The press on director Ché Walker's previous productions at the Finborough Theatre

"Fringe theatre is bristling with creativity and flare but is often overlooked. This seething mass of talent has risen to the surface at the Finborough with this transfixing production. Making his directorial debut, Che Walker creates a wonderfully tragic journey...this production is a triumph for all involved." Rob Speight, The Stage on Achidi J's Final Hours

"This is, by some distance, the best play that I have seen this year. Bracing, intense and tragic...compellingly, convincingly performed" Glen Baker, Morning Star on Achidi J's Final Hours

"This sensitive and highly effective production. Walker, directing a persuasive cast...creates a dark and compelling onstage world." Sam Marlowe, The Times on Achidi J's Final Hours

"Superbly directed by Ché Walker...an exciting, darkly comic evening." Aleks Sierz, What's On in London on Etta Jenks

"Ché Walker has revived it at the Finborough with great panache and a very strong cast." Philip Fisher, British Theatre Guide on Etta Jenks

"Ché Walker's spirited and thoroughly entertaining production" Robert Shore, Time Out on Etta Jenks

Blue Surge – Time Out Critics' Choice, * Four Stars in Time Out, The Times, The Guardian, London Theatre Reviews, The Public Reviews, WhatsOnStage and Evening Standard.

"The direction is fluid and beautifully paced while the lights are carefully blended into the scenes... It is the Finborough at its best" Blanche Marvin, London Theatreviews on Blue Surge

"Ché Walker's intimate production is lit up by intelligent performances." Henry Hitchings, Evening Standard on Blue Surge

"Powerfully served...by Ché Walker's direction...An evening of great theatre." Jeremy Kingston, The Times on Blue Surge
